Alpeh Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs Singer

Every week our class davening/praying improves as we learn many different prayers.

We continued with the second book of the Torah - Shemot. We learnt about the beginning of the life of Moshe/Moses, and his journey as a baby in the Nile River. We also learnt how Moshe became the leader of the Jewish nation after hearing Hashem/G-d at the burning bush.

We continued learning the Aleph Bet using our ring of letters. Now we know Aleph through Hay.

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

Did you know that we can learn about a special mitzvah, in each room of our homes? There is even a special mitzvah for just walking into your home! Just ask your child.

We learnt about the mitzvah of putting a Mezuzah on the doorpost of our homes. The Mezuzah is written by a scribe. He uses special ink, a quill, and writes on parchment. The Mezuzah protects our homes.

We saw a real mezuzah and had lots of fun writing like a scribe. I can't wait to find out what the next special Mitzvah will be! Have a great week.

Gimmel Class: Morah Dasia

This week we covered the mitzvah for letter Tet - Tzitzit. We learned what the word Tzitzit actually means, why do boys wear Tzitzit, how to do the mitzvah of Tzitzit, and what is the significance of the amounts of strings, corners, and knots in a Tzitzit garment.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

In today's class we learnt that the Torah is full of stories about people who were heroes in their time. These people are our heroes today. From these heroes in the Torah, we learn good character traits, that we learn from their good deeds. The stories about these Torah heroes, teach us good lessons we can take for our lives.

We reviewed about the first of our heroes, Adam and Chava, the very first two people to be created!

This year we are going to go through 12 heroes of the Torah, and we are looking forward to gaining, from learning about each one of them.

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

This week we learned about the Jewish customs practiced at the birth of a Jewish child. We discussed our purpose in the world, and our mission as Jews. We finished with an exciting game of 'Belts' to bring out the idea of leaping forward to reach our goals.
