Alpeh Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs. Singer

The Aleph class are progressing really well with the aleph-bet letters. Now we have learnt Aleph through Yud. Please review your ring of letters, whenever you have the chance.

The book of Shemot, continues as the plagues, have begun. This week the Egyptians experienced lice all over their bodies, the arrival of the wild animals, and the death of their farm animals. Still Pharaoh won't let the Jewish nation go!

Keep bringing in your mitzvah notes. Our tree is "growing" with all the leaves of the good things you do for others!

Remember: there are Torah dollars for you every time you bring in your folder, cards, mitzvah leaves, and tzedakah.

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

Today we finished the second room - the kitchen - in our Jewish home scrapbooks. This week, in our class, we became the owners of our very own kosher restaurants. Making sure not to mix milk and meat together. We are also busy filling up our scrapbooks! We checked out a real Kosher kitchen in the center.

Everyone really enjoyed learning about the kitchen and now we are off to the Dining Room and the mitzvah of Shabbat!

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

This week we covered the letter Kaf, and the mitzvah of Kosher. We learnt about the kosher "diet". How do we know if a manufactured product is kosher? What makes meat and fish kosher? And what a Kosher kitchen means.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Today we continued with Avraham, focusing on his hospitality, and his specially designed tent! We played a review game, and then we moved on to Sara. She was Avraham's partner in having guests, and teaching them about G-d's existence.

During her lifetime, and in her merit, their tent was blessed with three things. 1) The Shabbat candles she lit did not burn out the whole week. 2) Her challah that she made, in honor of Shabbat, remained fresh throughout the whole week 3) G-d's presence in the form of a cloud, was always present above their tent.

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

Each student has a set of new born twins, a boy and girl. Now that we learnt about what makes them Jewish and the Jewish soul (Neshamah), we learnt about the specialty of a Jewish name. We discussed how every Jew's Neshamah (Jewish soul) is connected with their Jewish name. Everyone was excited to participate in our baby naming ceremony for the baby girls. Have a good week.
