Alpeh Bet Communicates

Alpeh Class : Morah Rechama

The Aleph class was very busy this week with songs, crafts, and games. We love learning about the Aleph Bet, and especially writing our names in sugar! We have become experts in the letter Aleph to Daled.

We heard the fascinating story of Noach and the flood. We played a fun game to review the three levels of the ark - the trash, the animals, and Noach and his family. It was a lot of fun. see you in two weeks.

Bet Class: Morah Mushka

This week Class Bet continued learning the ten plagues. We learnt the plagues of frogs, lice, wild animals and farm animals. We also learnt a song to help us remember the plagues.

Gimmel Class: Mrs. Singer

The Gimmel class knows the aleph-bet letters more and more.

Now we've learnt Aleph through Yud. Please review your ring of letters, whenever you have the chance.

Our book Shemot, continues as the plagues, have begun. This week the Egyptians experienced lice all over their bodies, the arrival of wild animals and the death of their farm animals. Still Pharaoh won't let the Jewish nation go!

Keep bringing in your mitzvah notes. Our tree is "growing", with all the leaves of the good deeds you do for others!

Daled Class: Morah Chevie

The world was created in 6 days and the seventh day we rest. That day we call Shabbat, and we are celebrating! In class we set the table for Shabbat. Then in a special Shabbat party, we learnt all about the Dining Room.

Hey Class: Morah Mushkie

Today Class Hey started on the dining room, of our Jewish home scrapbooks.

“Sara -Avraham’s wife, and the first Jewish woman. Sara was the first one to light the Shabbat candles, and make the Challah bread which we eat on Shabbat.

Hashem preformed 3 special miracles in her honor. One her candles stayed light from one Friday until the next Friday. Second, Sara’s Challah stayed fresh from week to week. Thirdly, a cloud of protection that hovered over their tent. “

The mitzvah we began learning about is Shabbat! We played a great game of Shabbat Taboo, and learnt a few Shabbat songs!!

We are doing very well in Aleph Champ and we are almost ready to go up a level!

Vav & Zayin Class: Morah Dassie and Morah Chaya

This week we covered the letter Kaf and the mitzvah of Kosher. We learnt about the kosher "diet". How do we know if a manufactured product is kosher? What makes meat and fish kosher? And what a Kosher kitchen means.

Ches Class: Morah Rosie

What a wonderful time we had together! After Davening (praying) we learnt all about Sara - Avraham’s wife, and the first Jewish woman. Sara was the first one to light the Shabbat candles, and make the Challah bread which we eat on Shabbat.

Hashem preformed three special miracles in her honor. One, her candles stayed light from one Friday until the next Friday. Second, Sara’s Challah stayed fresh from week to week. Thirdly, a cloud of protection that hovered over their tent. We ended our day with creating our Sara projects.

Tet Class: Rabbi Prus

Each student has a set of new born twins, a boy and girl. Now that we learnt about what makes them Jewish and the Jewish Soul (Neshamah), we learnt about the specialty of a Jewish name. We discussed how every Jews' Neshamah (Jewish soul) is connected with their Jewish name. Everyone was excited to participate in our baby naming ceremony for the baby girls.
