Alpeh Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs. Singer

Do you feel it in the air? A new Jewish month has begun: the month of the holiday of Chanukah, Kislev.

Can you imagine the taste of the latkes? Can you see the menorah lit with shining candles? Are you thinking of gift giving with your family? This week we began to learn all about Chanukah, starting with the story.

We'll continue the story of Moshe/Moses as the plagues continue. Will Pharaoh finally let the Jewish nation go?

Have you been reviewing your aleph Bet cards? This week we go on with yud, kof, chof, and final chof. The more you practice, the easier it is to remember the letters.

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

The Bet class is stopping off in the living room. What Mitzvah can be done in the living room? We learnt about the Mitzvah of Hachnasat Orchim - how important it is to make our guests feel comfortable in our home. Do you remember who was the first one who did this mitzvah? It was Avraham, he had a tent with doors on each side, so guests could come in from all sides.

We also learnt about the mitzvah of tzedakah - charity. Don't forget to bring in your tzedakah box for the Ipod raffle! As a class we are already halfway to winning a pizza party!

“We learnt about Pidyon Haben- redeeming the firstborn. We acted out the ceremony in the classroom, and enjoyed the festive meal.

Each student had a chance to tell everyone the lesson in their life, that they can learn from Pidyon Haben.”

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

This week we learnt about the mitzvah of Pe'ah, laws of giving grain to the poor. This Mitzvah is specific to farmers in Israel. We discussed how this applies to our own lives, by doing the mitzvah of Tzedakah.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Class Daled had a really good time today learning about our forefa-ther, Yaakov. We acted out two very interesting scenes of Yaakov's life, and we worked more on our scrapbooks. There is so much to learn from the Jewish heroes in the Torah!

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

This week we learnt about Pidyon Haben- redeeming the firstborn. We acted out the ceremony in the classroom, and enjoyed the festive meal.

Each student had a chance to tell everyone the lesson in their life, that they can learn from Pidyon Haben.
