Aleph Class : Morah Rechama

The Aleph class made yummy hamantashen this week. Hamantashen, which starts with the letter Hey; reminds us of Haman's hat. We learnt a song to remind us how to make hamantashen. We also heard the story of Purim. We all had fun by drawing our very own class picture megillah, which tells the story of Purim! Please ask your children to tell you the story. See you all next week, all dressed up for Purim!

Bet Class: Mrs. Singer

We are all PURIM!! From the megillah, to baking hamentashen, to planning our mishloach manot. We had a very busy day! Ask your children what we did today. Next week we'll be celebrating the holiday with a megillah reading and costume contest on Saturday evening and on Sunday with a great carnival!

Gimmel Class: Morah Mushka

This week we continued learning in our Shemot book, and we began learning about the exodus of the Jews from the land of Egypt!

We also finished learning about the upcoming holiday of Purim, and we learnt the different customs that are observed. We also made our very own M'shloach Manot (gift packages) to give to our classmates!

Daled Class: Morah Chevie

There are four mitzvot that we should do on Purim. This week we learnt each one, and are prepared for the holiday coming up next Sunday! What fun it will be! Baskets of food, charity, Megillah reading, a meal - and of course the annual Purim carnival!

Hey Class: Morah Mushkie

Purim is such a fun holiday to learn about! We baked Hamantashen, and they came out so delicious! It is a custom to eat Hamantashen on Purim, because they are in a triangular shape - the shape of Haman's hat! We played Purim games, and sang a Purim song. Remember to ask us to sing it for you!

Vav and Zayin Class: Morah Dassie and Morah Chaya

In exactly one week, the joyous holiday of Purim will be here!

What happened on this day to the Jews long ago, and what are the special mitzvot and customs, are all things we discussed today. We also tasted the traditional Purim nosh - hamantashen - baked by our very own class.

Hope to see you all at the Purim carnival next week.

“Purim is coming! Everyone loves Purim. This week we learnt all about Purim, the Mitzvot, the story and the lessons we learn to apply to our lives - to make Purim something present not just a story which happened 2,500 years ago!”

Ches Class: Morah Rosie

What a fun day! After davening, we learnt all about the upcoming holiday, Purim. We heard the complete story of Purim, made Hamantashen, and learnt about the four special mitzvot of Purim.

We ended our day, by preparing for the carnival! Can't wait until next week!

Tet Class: Rabbi Prus

Purim is coming! Everyone loves Purim. This week we learnt all about Purim, the Mitzvot, the story and the lessons we learn to apply to our lives - to make Purim something present not just a story which happened 2,500 years ago.
