

ALEPH BET : HEBREW SCHOOL

SCHOOL NEWS

Mah Nishtanah Competition

As we prepare for the holiday of Passover, we would like to encourage all of the children to learn the "Four questions", and make your family proud of you!

We will have a Holiday Challenge Contest!

- The challenge is to memorize as many of the "four Questions" in Hebrew and English.

- Please let the teacher know when you are ready to repeat all or part of the "four questions"

- Prizes will be given according to how many questions you memorize. If you memorize all "four questions", you will receive $25 Torah dollars for the Aleph Bet store.

Save the date

Aleph Bet Model Seder will be held March 28th. Parents and family are welcome "The Seder you won't want to miss"

Alpeh Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Morah Rechama

Now that Purim is over, we have started to learn about the upcoming festival of Pesach; through stories, songs, and craft. We are having so much fun, the children especially loved acting out the story of Pesach.

We have begun to learn the Mah Nishtanah - the four questions. Please practice the Mah Nishtanah at home with your child.

Bet Class: Mrs. Singer

Now that we've celebrated the joyful holiday of Purim, it's time to move on to the next wonderful holiday. We began learning about Passover. This week we reviewed the story of Moshe/Moses in our books, Shemot. We also started reviewing some of the important components of Passover: the Haggadah, the Seder plate, and the cup of Elijah. Each week we'll be adding more and more to our learning for Passover, that will culminate in our model Seder at Aleph-bet.

Gimmel Class: Morah Mushka

This week we began to learn about the upcoming holiday of Passover. Being that our curriculum is the story of Exodus, we are learning about different insights through innovative activities and interactive lessons. In addition, we began to make our very own Haggadah!

Daled Class: Morah Chevie

Purim was fun! As a class we all participated in all the mitzvot and fun of Purim!

In just a few short weeks, it will be another great holiday - Passover! So we are starting “Passover is coming up, and there's so much to learn. First the students tried to put together the story of Passover. Then we began learning about Shmura Matzah (hand-made,) and what makes it different than the matza bought at the supermarket. Will you have Shmura Matzah, at your seder this year?”

ing to prepare by walking through the Seder night, and making our very own Haggadah, to be complete right before the holiday!

Hey Class: Morah Mushkie

We learnt so much today! We started learning about Pesach, the next Jewish holiday. We already began working on our Haggadah's, the book that tells us the story of Pesach, and guides us through the Seder. Our Haggadahs are looking great, and we can't wait to show it to our families!

Vav and Zayin Class: Morah Dassie and Morah Chaya

Passover is coming up, and there's so much to learn. First the students tried to put together the story of Passover. Then we began learning about Shmura Matzah (hand-made,) and what makes it different than the matza bought at the supermarket. Will you have Shmura Matzah, at your seder this year?

We also practiced our Seder songs, as well as the Mah Nishtana - the four questions. Let's see how many students can memorize all of the four questions!

Ches Class: Morah Rosie

I hope you all enjoyed the Purim Carnival! We are on to the next Jewish holiday- Pesach, Passover.

We began working on our Passover Haggadah. Learning about what is Chametz, and how we can get rid of it. We also, learnt about preparing for the holiday, and began exploring the 15 steps to the Seder. What a nice morning we had together!

Tet Class: Rabbi Prus

As we come from the happy holiday of Purim, celebrating the salvation of the Jews from Haman's wicked plot, we continue with happiness and celebration.
