Alpeh Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs. Singer

We're so busy. Our Haggadah is coming along nicely, so we can use it to read at our family Seder. We munched on matzo to get ready for the change in foods. We played a matching game to see how much we recall about the holiday. We went over our Shemot book, so we're ready to tell the story. Wow, we were so busy!

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

This week we continued learning about Pesach! We reviewed the story of how the Jews were freed from Egypt.

We then began our Haggadah which tells us the 15 steps of the Seder.

Did you know that we eat Matzah on Pesach because the Jews left Egypt in such a hurry that their dough didn't even have time to rise. We had a chance to roll up our sleeves and create our own handmade Matza from scratch.

Don't forget to practice the Mah Nishtanah - for 25 Torah dollars!

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

We left off last week in the middle of the Passover tale - where Moses, in his youth, was in trouble with the Pharaoh and had to run away. This week we continued with Moses marrying, becoming a Sheppard, and being given the job of leading the Jews out of Egypt. We were fascinated with many new details we have never heard before.

We also reviewed the Hebrew terms we were taught last week, in connection with Pesach. Then we placed the foods on the Se-

We also reviewed the Hebrew terms we were taught last week, in connection with Pesach. Then we placed the foods on the Seder plate, and discussed why we eat each one. Of course, the best part was making our very own maror and charoset.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Class Daled learnt how to set up a table for the Seder. We learnt what goes on the table, and the significance of each object. We added three more words to our Pesach dictionaries, and we played a game that will help us remember what each object on the Seder plate, is there to remind us of. We also learnt about the 4 cups of wine, why we drink them, and about the Haggadah - that guides us through the Seder, and tells us the story. We then practiced the Ma Nishtana. The 4 Questions that we ask during the Seder.

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

This week the students continued on their Haggadah for Dummies. We researched in a real Haggadah the important terms for each step of the Seder, instructions how to perform each step correctly, and the necessary blessings.
