Alph Bet Communicates

Alph Class : Mrs. Singer

Welcome back! I'm hopeful you had wonderful Seders, and an enjoyable time with your families and friends for the holiday of Passover.

We continued the story of Moses and the Jewish nation, in the book of Shemot, as they travel through the desert. This week we met Yitro, Moses' father-in-law, and the changes he suggested to make living and learning better for the growing Jewish nation. We have started to prepare for the upcoming holiday of Shavuot.

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

We have been very busy today learning about the next room of our house, which was the 'playroom'. In the playroom we discussed the Mitzvah of Ahavat Yisroel - to love your fellow Jew as yourself.

We had fun showing our friends Ahavat Yisroel by writing a sentence about each of our friends. It was wonderful to hear all of the beautiful character traits that we enjoy about our friends.

We ended our day with a fun game of Ahavat Yisroel tag.

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

This week we learnt the mitzvah for the letter Mem - Mezuzah. We learnt who writes the mezuzah, what makes a mezuzah kosher, and how it is affixed to our doorway.

We saw first hand the tool and supplies used to create the mezuzah parchment. We looked through many old mezuzahs, and tried to figure out why they were no longer valid. We reviewed with an interactive activity.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Its back to our scrapbooks! We played a grand game of Jeopardy to review all the Jewish Heroes, and we really know our stuff!

Today were also exciting because we began learning about King David, the first Jewish king! He lived during an exciting time for the Jewish people. He was a powerful and good King, a true leader of the Jewish people. Today, there is so much we can learn from him, and his leadership. He authored the famous Tehillim. (Book of Psalms)

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

It is great to be back after the Pass-over break. Over the last couple of months our 'Twins' really grew up, and are now getting ready to tie the knot, as they will be getting married.

We learnt all about marriage according to Judaism. What qualities to look for when finding your match, the purpose of marriage, and rituals of a Jewish wedding.
