Alpeh Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs. Singer

Our preparation for the holiday of Shavuot and our study of the book of Shemot come together as the Jewish nation, now a free people, get ready to receive the Torah. Which was the whole purpose of the Jews freedom from slavery. Ask your children about the special treat we created! Now that we've received the Torah it's time to live and learn the laws that will make us a holy nation.

Have you been practicing your Aleph Bet?

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

Today the Bet Class continued learning about the playroom, and the Mitzvah of Ahavat Yisroel - to love your fellow Jew as yourself. We learnt about Aharon who would always make peace between people.

In preparation for our next room - the parents room - we then heard a story about honoring our parents.

We made sure to scrapbook all that we have learnt. Our scrapbooks are getting quite full, and we can't wait to show you all the different Mitzvot we have learnt in our 'Jewish Home' curriculum.

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

This week we did the letter vav - which is the mitzvah of Torah study.

We learnt what the Torah is, and the importance of the Torah. We discussed how the Torah is the oldest history book, and for the past 3,000 years the Jewish existence is dependent on Torah.

We sang Torah songs, we saw what a Torah looks like and ended off with our own edible Torahs.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Today we learned about one of the fundamental principles of the Torah, believing in Hashem, G-d. King David, The Jewish Hero we are learning about had a difficult life filled with wars and attempts on his life, but he also lived a life of fame and fortune.

Throughout his life, whether things were difficult or good for him, King David never lost his belief in the one G-d, Hashem. From his life story and unshakeable belief in G-d we can learn that no matter how good or bad life seems, G-d is always with us and always listening out for our prayers.

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

Today we continued to learn about a Jewish Marriage. We discussed the purpose of marriage and the beauty of many Jewish customs performed at a Jewish wedding.
