Aleph Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs. Singer

It was time for us to experience the wonder and delight the Jewish nation felt at the receiving of the Torah, on Mount Sinai. Many special events took place in the classroom. We learnt a new song in celebration of the event, played pin the Luchos/Tablets on the Mountain, created (and ate) our individual Mount Sinai mountain cupcakes. We then went on to discuss the importance of rules to help us live together peacefully. The first rule we discussed was.... check the schoolbag, please.

The class is doing beautifully recalling all the Aleph Bet letters, in preparation for reading Hebrew. Have a wonderful Mother's Day.

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

Lag Ba'omer falls out this Sunday. We heard the story of Rabbi Akiva and learnt why we are celebrating this special day, and how important it is to have Ahavat Yisroel (to love your fellow Jew)

Mothers day, which falls out next week coincides nicely, with the next room in our Jewish home curriculum - the parents bedroom. We had fun creating mothers day cards for the mitzvah of Kibbud Av Vaim

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

This Sunday is Lag B'omer - a special day on the Jewish calendar. We learnt about the significance of this day, and how it is celebrated. We heard the story of Rabbi Akiva and his student,

Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, whom did not listen to the Roman Emperor's ban on learning Torah, and how these great Rabbi's are connected to the holiday, Lag B'omer.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Lag Baomer is coming up, and we know all about it! Lag Baomer is the day that a great sage and mystic, Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, who lived in the 2nd century c.e., passed away.

On the day of his passing, Rabbi Shimon requested that the day be marked as "the day of my joy." Till this day we celebrate this day at Lag Ba'omer - with out- ing, bonfires and other fun activities! Lag Ba'omer, the 33rd day of the counting of the Omer (the 7 weeks in between Pass- over and Shavout) is also celebrated for another reason that we have learnt, and can't wait to share with you! Be sure to ask us, and find out all about it!

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

Today we started of class by making an edible Chupah. After learning about the purpose of marriage, we learnt about the special customs of a Jewish wedding and Chupah ceremony.
