Aleph Bet Communicates

Aleph Class : Mrs. Singer

As our class continues in the book of Shemot, about the story of the Jews receiving the Torah, so too the holiday of Shavuot approaches. We discussed about how when the Jews received the Torah they accepted the Torah unconditionally, saying that 'they will do G-d's commandments and then understand it.'

Last week we discussed the importance of honoring our parents. This week we discussed the laws of keeping kosher and our three festival holidays, Passover, Shavuot, and Sukkot.

Bet Class: Morah Rechama

We have had such fun learning about all of the different Mitzvot we can do in our homes. Today, we had a grand review of all that we have learnt.

We also learnt about the festival of Shavuot, which is coming up soon. We learnt about the mountains all wanting the Torah to be given on them, and Hashem chose Mount Sinai. Hashem decorated Mount Sinai with flowers.

Today we practiced our songs for graduation. Hope to see you all there.

Gimmel Class: Morah Dassie

This week we learnt about the holiday of Shavuot, the day when the Jews received the Torah. We reviewed the Ten Commandments, which were written on the two tablets. We then re-enacted the giving of the Torah.

Daled Class: Morah Mushkie

Today we learnt more about Kind David. We filled in his page in our scrapbooks, and had a good time. We ended off with an arts and craft competition! We also prepared for graduation!

Hey Class : Rabbi Prus

Today we learnt about the Jewish customs regarding death. We learnt that a body which held a Neshamah is holy, and must be treated with respect according to the laws of the Torah. We also discussed about what happens with the Jewish soul after it leaves the body.
